

ANNUAL SESSION OF LEGISLATURE COMES TO AN END

But for Appropriation Measure, Adjournment Would Have Come Without the Night Session.

USUAL FESTIVITIES MARK CLOSING SCENES

Most Important Enactments of Recent Years Are Accredited to This General Assembly.

With the usual jubilation, singing and witty speeches marking the session of the general assembly for 1912-1913 to a close last night, the speaker of the house rang his gavel down the final of the ceremonies at 10:30 o'clock. The end came in the senate three minutes later at 11:05.

The house had already finished its work at the afternoon session and there was no need of a silent session for that body except to await the pleasure of its sister branch, the senate.

The senate had a number of special resolutions which it had not time to reach in the rush of the closing hours and there were also a few bills of general interest which had passed the house and which came back to the senate for final action on the last night.

Two bills of real general interest on which action was taken were the bill to allow trains carrying portable freight to run on Sunday and the measure to prevent the sale of wild cat stocks and bonds generally known as the "blue sky law."

"Blue Sky" Bill Passed.

The "blue sky" law was prepared by a committee of the Atlanta chamber of commerce, of which Hugh M. Willes is chairman, and was introduced into the house by Representative Francis C. Carroll, of Wallingford, of Mississippi. It passed the house some days ago.

Although it was one of the most important bills of the session, it was rushed through the senate with little delay, and it was one of the first bills to be passed by the senate.

As soon as the bill could be read, the vote was put and there was no dissenting voice.

There was opposition to the measure to allow freight trains carrying portable freight to run on Sunday, but it did not develop much strength. It was a measure introduced by Senator McNair, of Tennessee, and it was one of the first bills to be passed by the senate.

There were only four votes against the bill when it came up for final passage.

Permanent Registration.

A bill of Representative W. C. Wood, of Floyd, known as house bill No. 180, providing for permanent registration of voters, was also passed through the senate. The bill was introduced by the speaker of the house and it was one of the first bills to be passed by the senate.

A bill to appropriate $7,500 to the chemical bureau of the department of agriculture, and a bill to appropriate $10,000 to the department of education, with which to fight the bill, had been sent out of the house by the speaker of the house.

Barwell Addresses House.

Speaker Barwell addressed the house in a farewell message, telling the members that whatever may have been the mistakes which he may have made

TERRIFIC HEAT TURNING THREE WESTERN STATES INTO VERITABLE INFERNO

UNTIL SNOW FLIES CONGRESS TO STAY IN EXTRA SESSION

Democratic Senators in Caucus Vote Not to Quit Until Currency Reform Bill Has Been Enacted.

SCHEME FOR A RECESS BLOCKED BY PRESIDENT

Wilson Let It Be Known He Opposed Recess—Extra Session Likely to Continue Until Regular Session Begins.

Washington, August 14.—Congress will remain in session until snow flies, and if necessary, pending the extra session until the regular session begins in December to dispose of tariff and currency legislation.

This was the decision of the democratic caucus of the senate tonight which adopted a resolution declaring that congress should proceed to consider and determine legislation concerning currency and banking immediately following the passage of the pending currency bill.

Recess Out of Question.

The decision to keep at work until the legislative program outlined by President Wilson has been disposed of came after a motion offered by Senator Lewis, of Illinois, that a recess be taken following the passage of the tariff bill, had been withdrawn for lack of support. Those who knew some democratic senators who favored a recess of the events of the day in the senate, which showed the purpose of the republicans to debate the tariff at length, had seemed to convince the majority that any recess was out of the question.

Determination to take up currency legislation did not carry with it approval of any policy or commit the party to any particular currency bill. Senator Owen, chairman of the banking and currency committee, offered the original resolution. This directed that the senate take up for consideration the Glass-Steagall bill now in caucus in the house. Consideration followed the introduction of this and several amendments were offered, but the senate took no action on any of them.

Notice Served on Republicans.

The action of the caucus tonight, said Senator Simmons, chairman of the finance committee, means that we will hold the senate until we know how to carry out the work before us. I feel that we will not know how to carry out the work before us until we know how to carry out the work before us.

Senators Knew, Chairman of the Caucus.

Senator Keith, chairman of the caucus, said that he knew the senate would take up the currency bill. He said that he knew the senate would take up the currency bill. He said that he knew the senate would take up the currency bill.

For Eleven Days Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma Have Burned—All Records for Heat Broken.

WATER FAMINE EXISTS; LATE CROPS DESTROYED

In Some Places Sun's Rays Have Fired Wheat Stacks. People and Live Stock Are Suffering Extremely.

Kansas City, Mo., August 14.—Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma today sweltered under the eleventh day of terrific heat which has paralyzed late crops, caused water famine and been responsible for extreme suffering among the people and the live stock of the three states.

Local showers in Kansas today failed to affect the general temperature, which again reached an average maximum above 100 degrees. In many places the mercury climbed to 108 and few stations reported temperatures lower than 100. A half-inch of rain fell in Topeka this afternoon, causing the temperature to drop 25 degrees in 15 minutes, but an hour later the mercury had climbed up to the maximum of the day. The shower was confined in a territory less than a mile square. People shouted and cheered as the breeze began to blow, and many of them stood in the downpour, as it was the first rain there since July 25.

Heat Wave Broken.

For sustained heat the present hot spell has broken all Kansas records. In the history of the state since the drought began early in May, when the thermometer rose to 100 degrees, hot waves have followed with such brief cool periods intervening that the exceptional heat has been almost continuous.

Late crops practically have been destroyed in parts of the state. Some farmers are cutting their corn in the hope of utilizing it for fodder, but the wheat is a total loss. It is so dry that it will not even make good fodder. In some places the wheat is being baled immediately after it is cut, as is so dry the usual curing process is unnecessary.

Water Supply Exhausted.

Olathe, Lawrence, Medicine Lodge and other Kansas cities are exhausting their water supply. Olathe has used up its water supply. Lawrence has used up its water supply. Medicine Lodge has used up its water supply.

Wright Declares Law Sure to Be Popular

After Signing Bill Governor Hands Pen to Representative Lipscomb, of Clarke, Who Introduced It.

If there were anything lacking to insure the popularity of the new tax revision law, it was furnished by the announcement made yesterday of the appointment by Governor Shreve of the state tax revision committee.

The action of the administration here followed receipt of a cablegram from Ambassador Page in London, officially confirming the Associated Press dispatch which had reported a statement from the British government that it had recognized the Huerta regime in Mexico along with France and Germany after a congratulatory speech to President Huerta by Ambassador Wilson on behalf of the diplomatic corps in Mexico City.

Secretary Bryan, after a conference with the president tonight, then sent them with the original to detect any errors in copying. President Randolph Anderson and Speaker William H. Burwell then placed their signatures on the bill.

The measure was waiting on the governor's desk for the final touch to make it a law when the chief executive returned from lunch. There were only a few persons in the private office of the governor when he signed the bill.

State Signs Bill.

With the signature of Governor John M. Shreve, which was affixed shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the tax revision bill, which will henceforth be known in the history of the state as the Lipscomb act, became a law.

Copies of the bill duly engrossed, signed by the executive secretary, Hardy Uim, shortly after 4 o'clock and read them carefully, comparing them with the original to detect any errors in copying. President Randolph Anderson and Speaker William H. Burwell then placed their signatures on the bill.

Dorsey Asks Removal of Leo Frank's Mother and Wife from Court

Judge Warns Them That Another Scene Like That of Wednesday, When Mrs. Rae Frank Denounced Solicitor, Will Result in Barring Them—Leach Proves Good Witness for the State, Although Called to Testify by Defense.

More witnesses were examined Thursday than on any day since the trial of Leo M. Frank began.

However, there was little added from the testimony that was of striking interest or that saved of the drama.

For the most part the day was taken up with character witnesses—men who have known Frank for years and who have volunteered to swear to his good character.

The only incident of the day that was in any way dramatic came at the morning session, when Solicitor Dorsey asked that Mrs. Rae Frank and Mrs. Leo Frank, mother and wife of the defendant, be removed from the court room. This was the result of the passionate outburst of Mrs. Rae Frank the day previous. Judge Ross was warning that there must be no more such demonstrations.

LOYALTY OF OLD STUDENTS.

The feature of the day was the loyalty with which Frank's classmates and instructors at Cornell university looked to his aid in his time of trouble. Several of them had not seen him since he was a beardless youth. Judge Ross had the memories of the old days before the real business of life, leading into strange and untrodden paths, had begun. They remembered him in the first flush of young manhood.

How different the scene yesterday! The man the center of a gaping crowd—the object of all observation—was now a man charged with an awful crime.

But that mattered little to them. They were his friends, and no matter what opinion the casual spectator might entertain of the guilt or innocence of the man, this one touch of quiet, unobtrusive and for many

SEATTLE PLAN LOSES IN TYPO CONVENTION

Decisive Victory for the Lynch Adherents—Next Convention to Providence.

Nashville, Tenn., August 14.—The fight for the Seattle plan, which had been looked forward to with keen interest by the delegates to the fifth annual convention of the International Typographical Union, now in session here, was staged this afternoon, and as on all former occasions, the administration won, this being the most decisive victory of the week. By a vote of 241 to 27 the plan was voted down, following an afternoon of debate that at times grew so hot that the delegates were obliged to leave the hall.

The plan provided for an election to determine whether or not the governing powers of the International Typographical Union should be taken from the executive council of three and vested in a board of directors consisting of 25 members to be elected from certain prescribed districts. It meant the complete reorganization of the governing power and was fought hard by the administration forces.

With the decisive victory of today it is believed that the fight against the administration will be over, and a few of the anti-administration forces say they will be heard from again before the next convention.

Very few anti-administration forces were present at the convention, and the remainder of their stay in Nashville on account of the large volume of work to be done in the short time remaining.

Today's session of the convention, the morning being devoted to the election of officers, the address of George L. Berry, president of the International Typographical Union, and the address of Thomas J. Mackin, of the Seattle plan.

Another session of the convention was held this afternoon, and the vote of 241 to 27 was taken on the Seattle plan.

The Seattle plan, which is a business plan, was the subject of reports and the resolution of an amendment which would have changed the election of officers from the executive council to the board of directors.

Addressing the convention, Mr. Mackin, of the Seattle plan, said that the final meeting of the executive council would be held tomorrow morning, and the final meeting of the board of directors would be held tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. Mackin said that the final meeting of the executive council would be held tomorrow morning, and the final meeting of the board of directors would be held tomorrow afternoon.

Luke 19:10

The House gave $30,000 to the reformatory for girls by House Bill No. 4.

The Committee on Appropriations of the Senate, of which SENATOR W. W. STARK is Chairman, offered two amendments to the Bill. Each was designed to cut off $10,000 from the already slender appropriation. The Bill had originally provided $75,000.

The Senate agreed to one amendment—the other it killed—leaving the appropriation $20,000, which will enable the State to make a good beginning.

But SENATOR STARK fought even this. He sent an amendment to the desk. The clerk read it.

NONE LAUGHED. FEW SMILED.

The Senate's President ruled the amendment out of order.

The purpose of it was only to ridicule the idea of the Bill.

SENATOR STARK said further that if the measure were made the law, next year would come committees urging the State to take care of CATS AND DOGS as well as GIRLS.

Again none laughed. Few smiled.

But many thanked God for the MANHOOD OF THE MAJORITY of Georgia.

Men were thinking, not of ribald salaciousness—but of the girl—the pitiable child whose life and soul depend upon such an home—

They were recalling the thousands of dollars given to the care of hogs and cattle, and to the killing of bugs. They resented the sneer at helping children—even though the children be girls.

SENATOR TARVER demonstrated that Georgia does not believe in damning children.

Likewise did SENATOR FOSTER.

As did SENATOR HUIE.

And SENATOR ELKIN by his words revealed the unutterable emptiness of the sneering amendment.

SENATORS JONES AND DUBOSE spoke for suffering humanity.

But SENATOR M'GREGOR opposed the measure. Economy—the saving of a dollar—was his cry—

Nevertheless, the call of the "Ayes" and "Nays" disclosed that thirty-two Senators of Georgia believe in protecting and saving girls. Only ten voted against the Bill. And it was passed.

Friends rushed it across the Capitol to the House.

SPEAKER BURWELL called the House to order. JOHN Y. SMITH, of Fulton, moved that the House concur in the action of the Senate.

PICQUET, of Richmond, obtained the floor.

He attacked the Bill. He tried to amend it.

WIMBERLY, of Bibb, replied to him in words that burned.

SHUPTRINE, a friend of the measure, interrupted WIMBERLY to ask:

"Do you think there is a chance of this House accepting that amendment?"

"No," he thundered. "Not if there are any men with red blood in their veins on the floor of this House."

"Then don't let's argue. Vote," said SHUPTRINE.

And SPEAKER BURWELL put the question.

The hall reverberated with a chorus of "Ayes"—the one hundred and fifteen who originally voted for the measure had gathered other men—the House was almost a unit for HOUSE BILL NO. 4.

Thank God for this!

A list of the men who have helped in this—and to make Probation a part of the law of Georgia—would include two-thirds of the members of both Houses.

Doing notable work were Olive, Myrick, Wright, Blackburn, Nunnally, Culpepper, Jones of Coweta, Hollberg and Gower, as well as those named above.

But Georgia owes not only these—she owes every member of the House and Senate who voted for these measures a debt of gratitude.

God will reward.

And the saved boy and girl will call them blessed.

MARRIAGE PLEDGED TO ELOPING GIRLS

Marsha Warrington and Lola Norris Say Diggs and Caminetti Promised to Wed. Stories of Girls Unshaken.

San Francisco, Aug. 14.—Lola Norris followed Marsha Warrington to the witness stand today, and repeated virtually unchanged, but even stronger terms, the story of seduction, intimidation and elopement from Sacramento to Reno, on which the government bases its prosecution of Marsha Diggs and Drew Caminetti under the Mann act. The trial of Caminetti will follow that of Diggs, now in progress. The day was punctuated by a series of minor surprises. Marsha Warrington had been expected to question with faith of the government a transcript of the story told by Marsha Warrington to the assistant district attorney of Sacramento County, who is now in Reno after the arrest, which is now in the possession of the government. He was instructed by the court that the jury would take evidence of nothing except what came regularly before it.

Curiously as to his state of mind increased when after the examination of the transcript, the jury was told that the government had no further to offer.

Judge Van Fleet avoided when he stated that he had no further to offer the instructions as to when he should return.

During the day Judge Warrington said the jury should be instructed that the government had no further to offer the transcript of the story told by Marsha Warrington to the assistant district attorney of Sacramento County, who is now in Reno after the arrest, which is now in the possession of the government.

HE WOULD FACE GALLOW'S HAD LAW BEEN PASSED

Dan Page, of Tifton, Pleads Guilty to Misdemeanor for Waylaying Girl.

Tifton, Ga., August 14.—(Special.)—If the bill introduced to the Georgia legislature at the present session fixing the age of consent at 14 years had become a law one young man in Tifton would now be in the shadow of the gallows.

Dan Page, a young white man, was arrested last night by Officer Jordan, charged with a misdemeanor. A young girl, who says she is 14, who was wearing short skirts and who was on her way home from a dance, where she had been visiting relatives, to the home of her parents at Aragon, Ga., was detained in the custody of Sheriff Shaw as a witness.

The girl arrived in Tifton on the Atlantic Coast Line train from Waycross shortly before 10 o'clock at night, and was waiting at the union station until the train for Atlanta left at 11:20. She says that Page approached her, and offered to show her the home of a distant connection of her family. She was taken to the home of her parents at Aragon, Ga., and the couple did not return until after 12 o'clock.

Officer Jordan's suspicions had been aroused by Page's actions, and he had been searching for the couple, but did not find them until they were taken to the home of her parents at Aragon, Ga., and the couple did not return until after 12 o'clock.
